

Teacher of History and Human Science in English (Ref.: 2017/05):

- A qualified, enthusiastic and experienced teacher of History is required to teach the subjects to all levels in secondary, including the European Baccalaureate, and Human Sciences in S1-S3 in English.
- The teacher should preferably be a native speaker of English, although a good knowledge of English (C1/C2) would also be considered.
- The lessons are in mixed ability groups, and will require differentiated learning strategies.
- Good team-work with other teachers is expected.
- Approximately 21 lessons per week are available (full-time is 21 periods of 45 minutes).
- Good planning and ICT skills are essential.

All contracts are for one school year, and there is the chance to prolong the contract if the hours are still available. For information on the conditions of service and salary for the teaching posts, copy the following link
