Abstract:	Ben is anders. Zijn leven zit vol vreemde rituelen. Hij lijkt te leven in zijn eigen universum, dat zich voor meer dan de helft afspeelt in de wereld van online computergames. In de echte, harde wereld van een technische school is het leven voor hem een dagelijkse hel, met twee kerels die hem het leven bijna letterlijk onmogelijk maken. Ben heeft een plan. Een plan van één woord: moord! Dan komt zijn internetvriendin Scarlite in zijn leven. Dat behoorde niet tot het plan.

Abstract: De meest grootschalige reeks verfilmingen ooit gemaakt gebaseerd op de prachtige verhalen uit 's werelds beroemdste boek. Een uitzonderlijke megaproductie die tot stand kwam dankzij de samenwerking tussen 15 internationale tv-zenders (o.a. CBS, Rai, France 2 en NCRV). Er werd meer dan 15 jaar aan gewerkt met een totaalbudget van ruim 195 miljoen dollar. De bijzondere verfilmingen uit The Bible Collection wonnen gezamenlijk maar liefst 11 Emmy Awards (o.a. outstanding miniseries), werden voor allerlei filmprizen genomineerd en staan wereldwijd nog steeds te boek als een van de meest accurate filmvertalingen van De Bijbel. De cast van de bijbelverfilmingen wordt aangevoerd door een indrukwekkende reeks internationale acteurs en actrices waaronder Sir Ben Kingsley, Gary Oldman, Sean Bean, Barbara Hershey, Richard Harris, Elizabeth Hurley en Jonathan Pryce e.v.a. Daarnaast is niemand minder dan de gelauwerde componist Ennio Morricone verantwoordelijk voor de prachtige muziekscore.

Abstract:	Die Welle ist ein deutsches soziopolitisches Filmdrama aus dem Jahr 2008. Jürgen Vogel spielt einen Lehrer, der seiner Schulklasse in einem von ihm konzipierten Sozialexperiment vorführt, wie autoritäre gesellschaftliche Strukturen entstehen. Er lässt die Schüler an einer von Disziplin und Gemeinschaftsgeist geprägten und von ihm selbst angeführten Bewegung namens Die Welle mitwirken. Regisseur und Drehbuchkoautor Dennis Gansel stützte seine Handlung auf das Experiment „The Third Wave“, das 1967 in Kalifornien stattfand. Auf Basis dieses Experiments schrieb Morton Rhue den Roman Die Welle (1981), der in Deutschland und in Österreich zu einem Schullektüre-Klassiker geworden ist. Für den Film wählte Gansel einen inszenatorischen Ansatz, der die Verführung durch die Bewegung für das Publikum erfahrbar machen soll. In Deutschland sahen zweieinhalb Millionen Besucher den Film im Kino.

Abstract:	Er ist wieder da, der Führer. Knapp 70 Jahre nach seinem unrühmlichen Abgang erwacht Adolf Hitler im Berlin der Gegenwart. Ohne Krieg, ohne Partei, ohne Eva. Im tiefsten Frieden, unter Angela Merkel und vielen tausend Ausländern startet er, was man am wenigsten von ihm erwartet hätte: eine Karriere im Fernsehen. Denn das Volk, dem er bei einer Reise durch das neue Deutschland begegnet, hält ihn für einen politisch nicht ganz korrekten Comedian und macht ihn zum gefeierten TV-Star. Und das, obwohl sich Adolf Hitler seit 1945 äußerlich und innerlich keinen Deut verändert hat. ER IST WIEDER DA ist keine Romanverfilmung im üblichen Sinne. Denn Hauptdarsteller Oliver Masucci spielt Adolf Hitler nicht nur an der Seite von erstklassigen Kollegen wie Fabian Busch, Christoph Maria Herbst und Katja Riemann – er begegnet in dokumentarischen Szenen auch dem kleinen Mann auf der Straße, außerdem Kleintierzüchtern, Unternehmern, Prominenten, Jungpolitikern, Journalisten, Nipstern und Neonazis.

Abstract:	A young teacher inspires her class of at-risk students to learn tolerance, apply themselves, and pursue education beyond high school. It's 1994 in Long Beach, California. Idealistic Erin Gruwell is just starting her first teaching job, that as freshman and sophomore English teacher at Woodrow Wilson High School, which, two years earlier, implemented a voluntary integration program. For many of the existing teachers, the integration has ruined the school, whose previously stellar academic standing has been replaced with many students who will be lucky to graduate or even be literate. Despite choosing the school on purpose because of its integration program, Erin is unprepared for the nature of her classroom, whose students live by generations of strict moral codes of protecting their own at all cost. Many are in gangs and almost all know somebody that has been killed by gang violence. The Latinos hate the Cambodians who hate the blacks and so on. The only person the students hate more is Ms. Gruwell. It isn't until Erin holds an unsanctioned discussion about a recent drive-by shooting death that she fully begins to understand what she's up against. And it isn't until she provides an assignment of writing a daily journal - which will be not graded, and will remain unread by her unless they so choose - that the students begin to open up to her. As Erin tries harder and harder to have resources provided to teach properly (which often results in her needing to pay for them herself through working second and third jobs), she seems to face greater resistance, especially from her colleagues, such as Margaret Campbell, her section head, who lives by regulations and sees such resources as a waste, and Brian Gelford, who will protect his "privileged" position of teaching the senior honors classes at all cost. Erin also finds that her teaching job is placing a strain on her marriage to Scott Casey, a man who seems to have lost his own idealistic way in life.

Abstract:	In the winter of 1820, the New England whaling ship Essex was assaulted by something no one could believe: a whale of mammoth size and will, and an almost human sense of vengeance. The real-life maritime disaster would inspire Herman Melville's Moby-Dick. But that told only half the story. "In the Heart of the Sea" reveals the encounter's harrowing aftermath, as the ship's surviving crew is pushed to their limits and forced to do the unthinkable to stay alive. Braving storms, starvation, panic and despair, the men will call into question their deepest beliefs, from the value of their lives to the morality of their trade, as their captain searches for direction on the open sea and his first mate still seeks to bring the great whale down.

Abstract: Jeugdliefdes Hans en Margje Sievez leiden een gelukkig gezinsleven op hun kwekerij. Als Hans een diepreligieuze ervaring heeft, is hij ervan overtuigd in direct contact met God te hebben gestaan. In de daar op volgende zoektocht naar zingeving en het eeuwige leven verliest hij het zicht op de werkelijkheid en het contact met zijn omgeving.

The film tells the love story between Hans (Barry Atsma) and Margje (Noortje Herlaar) - sweethearts since school. Hans grows up in a strict religious environment, with a brutal father. He runs away from home at a young age and studies horticulture. After World War II, he starts a nursery in a village in the province of Gelderland. At first, he and Margje enjoy a happy family life and boundless love for one another. They also experience problems, however, with keeping the business going. One day, Hans meets Jozef Mieras (Marcel Hensema), who talks to him about God. After Hans hears God's voice in a vision, he becomes drawn ever deeper into his faith - a faith that will now determine the course of his life, and that of his family. The rifts between the different family members become greater and greater until Hans is completely in the grip of the religious sect. Yet Margje's unconditional love for him survives, in spite of all.

Abstract:	1327: after a mysterious death in a Benedictine Abbey, the monks are convinced that the apocalypse is coming. With the Abbey to play host to a council on the Franciscan's Order's belief that the Church should rid itself of wealth, William of Baskerville, a respected Franciscan friar, is asked to assist in determining the cause of the untimely death. Alas, more deaths occur as the investigation draws closer to uncovering the secret the Abbey wants hidden, and there is finally no stopping the Holy Inquisition from taking an active hand in the process. William and his young novice must race against time to prove the innocence of the unjustly accused and avoid the wrath of Holy Inquisitor Bernardo Gui.

Abstract:	Johan Ten Berghe joins the Dutch army when the Dutch East Indies unilaterally declare independence as Indonesia. He initiates his naive driver Twan in life in the East, having grown up there as son of colonial official Hendrik, now missing. Their adventures intertwine with Johan's childhood memories, especially concerning his native best friend, Oeroeg, who joined the rebellion, as well as their nanny and later de facto stepmother. Conflicting loyalties become tangible in extreme situations. Johan, de zoon van een Nederlandse plantage-eigenaar in Indonesië en Oeroeg, de zoon van de ploegbaas groeien samen op. In de dagen volgend op de tweede wereldoorlog starten de Indonesische Nationalisten een gewapend verzet tegen de Nederlnade Kolonialisten. Johan, nu een soldaat van 24, moet de macht in Indonesie gaan herstellen. Als hij op de plantage aankomt, ziet hij zijn vader die brutaal vermoord werd door de Indonesische vrijheidsstrijders. Heel even krijgt Johan het gezicht van de moordenaar te zien en hij herkent zijn oude vriend Oeroeg. Johan en Oergoeg staan nu in de tegengestelde kampen van een strijd zonder overwinnaar. Oeroeg is een aangrijpend verhaal over vriendschap, die kapot gemaakt wordt door politiek en oorlog.

Abstract:	A drama that tracks the story of the foot soldiers of the early feminist movement, women who were forced underground to pursue a dangerous game of cat and mouse with an increasingly brutal State. These women were not primarily from the genteel educated classes, they were working women who had seen peaceful protest achieve nothing. Radicalized and turning to violence as the only route to change, they were willing to lose everything in their fight for equality - their jobs, their homes, their children and their lives. Maud was one such foot soldier. The story of her fight for dignity is as gripping and visceral as any thriller, it is also heart-breaking and inspirational.

Abstract:	In Nazi Germany during World War II, as the tide turned in favor of The Allies, a cadre of senior German officers and politicians desperately plot to topple the Nazi regime before the nation is crushed in a near-inevitable defeat. To this end, Colonel Claus von Stauffenberg, an Army officer convinced he must save Germany from Hitler, is recruited to mastermind a real plan. To do so, he arranges for the internal emergency measure, Operation: Valkyrie, to be changed to enable his fellows to seize control of Berlin after the assassination of the Fuhrer. However, even as the plan is put into action, a combination of bad luck and human failings conspire on their own to create a tragedy that would prolong the greater one gripping Europe.

Abstract:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. A New Dawn (Een nieuwe dageraad) The dinosaurs died out 65 million years ago, but what on earth happened next? This first episode of the sequel to Walking with Dinosaurs, drops in on our planet 49 million years ago to find it has fully recovered from the extinction and is covered in a mysterious forest. This is a time that the world has almost forgotten: Germany was a hot, sweaty jungle, birds ruled the Earth and preyed on miniature horses, and the ancestors of the whales walked on land.</li> <li>2. Whale Killer (Dodelijke Walvissen) It is 36 million years ago, and mammals have taken over the world. They are no longer small furry animals living under the shadow of dinosaurs or killer birds, they have grown enormous and dominate the planet. This is an era of animals like Andrewsarchus, the biggest mammal carnivore ever to walk on land, and the Brontotheres, small brained bulldozing herbivores. It is in the sea, however, that the most monstrous mammals of all can be found. This programme follows the fate of a female Basilosaurus, a huge serpentlike early</li> </ol> whale. She is nothing like the gentle filter feeding whales of the 21st century. Four times the length of a great white shark, with jaws to match, she is every inch a killer.

3. Land of Giants (Reuzen van het land)
 This third instalment of Walking with Beasts goes back 25 million years ago to meet the biggest land mammals of all time - the Indricotheres. Up to 7 metres tall and weighing 15 tonnes, adults were too big to be eaten by any predator of the time. In fact it is only in the first few years of life that Indricotheres are vulnerable. This programme follows the fate of a calf from his traumatic birth to see whether he can survive droughts, six foot tall killer hogs and Hyaenodon - a predator the size of a rhino, with jaws that could crush a rock.

4. Next of Kin (Verre Voorouders)
 This episode travels back in time to Ethiopia 3.2 million years ago to witness the beginnings of mankind. It follows a group of Australopithecus, a type of ape which, just like us, walks upright on two legs. But unlike us, these early members of the human family were not predators, they were prey. Things get worse and worse for the group as they are hunted by a sabre tooth cat called Dinofelis and fall victim to other dangers such as malaria, rival Australopithecus and a rampaging fourteen tonne Deinotherium.

5. Sabre Tooth (De Sabeltandkat)
 One million years ago, South America was a continent of exotic oversized creatures found nowhere else on earth; nine foot terror birds, giant ground sloths and spiky-tailed relatives of the armadillo as big as cars. But the deadliest animal of them all was Smilodon, the largest of all the sabre tooth cats, with canines like carving knives. This programme follows the fortunes of an individual male - Half Tooth. Ousted from his clan by a pair of rival males, his life suddenly becomes a struggle to survive in this alien world.

6. Mammoth Journey (De Trek van de Mammoet)
 In the final episode of the series we go back 30,000 years to the middle of an ice age. The landscape is dominated by the mighty mammoths, living side by side with woolly rhinos, giant deer and two separate species of human. This programme follows the fate of a herd of mammoths in their annual struggle against the harsh ice age conditions. They spend every summer on the grassy plains of what will one day become the bottom of the North Sea. But every winter they are forced to head for the less exposed valleys further south. It is a journey fraught with danger as mammoths can get trapped in frozen bogs and the herd have to run the gauntlet of Ice Age hunters like cave lions and the deadly Neanderthals.

Abstract:	Zootropolis is een stad als geen ander, een moderne wereld met alleen dieren. De stad bestaat uit verschillende wijken zoals de chique Sahara Square en het ijskoude Tundratown. Het is een mengelmoes van dieren uit verschillende omgevingen die samenleven. Het maakt niet uit wie of wat je bent, van de grootste olifant tot de kleinste spitsmuis. Maar wanneer de optimistische officier Judy Hopps (Ginnifer Goodwin) zich aansluit bij de politie, ontdekt ze dat het niet zo makkelijk is om als eerste konijn bij het politiekorps vol grote, stoere dieren te zitten. Vastberaden om zichzelf te bewijzen, grijpt ze de kans aan om een zaak op te lossen. Zelfs als dat betekent dat ze moet samenwerken met de welbespraakte sluwe vos Nick Wilde (Jason Bateman) om het mysterie op te lossen. In a city of anthropomorphic animals, a rookie bunny cop and a cynical con artist fox must work together to uncover a conspiracy.
